Opening

Hi, I'm Scar! I'll be writing this book with the possible help of so e other admins. Homophobia and sexism are not allowed, if you broadcast your homophobia you will be blocked, etc. etc. Requests are welcome. And now- to the gay!

Firestar

Firestar is bisexual.

Sorreltail

Sorreltail is homosexual panromantic. She only had kits because she wanted kits, and not because she loved her mate sexually.

Leafpool

Leafpool was demisexual, and also had a childhood crush on Sorreltail and Mothwing.

Flametail

Flametail was asexual aromantic, and felt pressured into taking a mate by all of the Clanmates around him.

Tallstar

Tallstar and his kismesis, Shrewclaw, had a fling after Tallstar got back from his journey, but it didn't work out. He was too in love with Jake.

Breezepelt

Breezepelt is a hardcore homosexual who likes the D and will fight anyone who disagrees.

Barley

Barley didn't see Ravenpaw as a sexual partner because of what he went through, but rather as a close bit-more-than-friend who needed comfort and someone to tell them how amazing they were every day.

Silverstream

Silverstream was actually straight, and was confused and overwhelmed by all of the homosexual relationships going on around her. She just wanted a kind, funny tom who would listen to he and raise one litter of kits into brave warriors.

Lionblaze

Lionblaze was bisexual, but had a great preference for she-cats, which is why all his mates were female. He made out with an apprentice from another Clan behind bushes at a Gathering once.

Hollyleaf

Hollyleaf was celibate and asexual demiromantic with a preference for she-cats. She would have had a crush on intelligent Ivypool if she had lived through the final battle.

Half Moon

Half Moon was heterosexual panromantic. Dove's Wing had a crush on her.

Thunder

Thunder was asexual biromantic, and never slept around. He always made sure to get to know a person before trying to get into a relationship with them.

Briarlight

Briarlight was homosexual panromantic, but she never got to even have a serious crush on anyone, as her accident and her injury took up all her thoughts.

Gray's Wing

Gray's Wing was likely bisexual, and he always had caliginous and ashen feelings for Tall Shadow.

Ivypool

Ivypool was aceflux, and she always felt very conflicted about the different cats around her. She would always sit in silence and try to figure out how she felt towards a cat that she liked, trying to understand why it wasn't simple like it was for everyone else. I also headcanon that she was demiagender.

Ashfur

Ashfur was bisexual and he secretly had a caliginous crush on Brambleclaw, which was part of the reason he always argued with him.

Blackstar

Blackstar was a homosexual, but was fairly embarrassed about it, so he refused to talk about mates or mating with anyone but his deputies and medicine cats, and even then he was reluctant. He felt flushed for his medicine cat, Littlecloud, and the WindClan medicine cat, Barkface. He liked cats who could heal and were confident in their skills.

Daisy

Daisy was heterosexual panromantic, and had multiple she-cat mates when she was at the Horseplace. She still had feelings for one of them, and also had a flush-crush on Brightheart.

Night

Night of No Stars had flush-crushes on Jagged Rock Where Heron Sits and Swoop of Chestnut Hawk.

Scourge

Scourge wasn't interested whatsoever in she-cats, and only very mildly interested in toms, feeling no sexual or romantic attraction unless he had a strong hatred for the person, such as Firestar. Basically he was demisexual demiromantic, but only for those whom he had caliginous feelings for.

Requests

Aaaaand it's that time again, friends- twenty-two chapters, and I'm running out of ideas. So if anyone has a request for cats or oneshots, please post them here! :) Scar, over and out!
